Chinese Auction items are being gathered by Tabitha Dillon and Becky Yuhas, send any donations to her. Teaches are working on silent Auction items for each grade. Rena and Carla are working on the small games for the event. Will have 6 small games for the evening. Cost for games will be about $100 or $150. Volunteers are still needed for the games and security for the evening needs to be arranged. Future dress down days have been set to raise funds for this event. PTG will donate 3 spirit shirts for a SMS spirit basket.

New Business:

Suggestions for the purchase of items for the school/students was discussed with the profits of the cash bash. These suggestions included: help with school internet connections, additional chrome books, science kits, computer programs and enhancements to school security. An additional suggestion was made to have a parent survey go out to families. result of survey can be announced and discussed at Cash Bash and the PTG mtg in November.

Living Rosary- 10/17/18 @ 7pm in the church. Ms. Gerrity gave report on the date change and the number of students involved. It is still not decided if there will be a reception in the cafeteria afterwards. That may depend of the availability of new Priest for St. Margarets. Cara Piagessi has volunteered to purchase items should the event take place.

Fundraisers:

Sarris Christmas Sales- Will take place from 10/24-11/7. Delivery will be 12/4.
